Black Cat Hosiery

Warm weather increases the demand for more hosiery. Poor qualities are an extravagance. Best grades are none too good. Light weight often decreases the life of a pair of hose. If you buy Black Cat light weights you may expect a good wear. They are warranted to do that. Black Cat Hose to-day are the strongest colors in hosiery on the market. If all this appeals to you why then buy Black Cat Hosiery and enjoy the worth of every penny of your money.

Munsing Underwear

Is all made in one mill, not jobbed out as other underwear. Munsing Underwear has not as yet been marked up in price to values of other underwear. They deliver every garment that we buy at the price we agree to pay. It's an exception for others to deliver half. They are the largest underwear manufacturers in the United States. Munsing Underwear is made for the whole family. It's the best underwear in America and at a less price than other makes.
